To Whom It May Concern:

Scrum Alliance®, Inc. is a Colorado 501(c)(6) nonprofit corporation. The corporation is organized to promote and support as a common business interest the successful adoption of Scrum and other Agile product development and project management practices on a nonprofit basis, to the end of enhancing project management and product development practices across various adopting enterprises. As a membership and certification body, our members teach seminars/courses that lead to professional certifications.

Founded in 2001, Scrum Alliance is the largest, most established, and influential professional membership and certification organization in the Agile community. Our nonprofit association has certified more than 1,000,000 practitioners worldwide. Scrum Alliance is an organization that provides education, resources, and support to practitioners of Scrum and Agile. Membership offers advocacy, community engagement, research, networking, and a focus on organizational change to transform the world of work. The mission is to enable professionals to solve complex problems and deliver value efficiently through agile education, skills recognition, and connection to a global community of experts.

With this letter, the Scrum Alliance verifies that as of the date in this letter, Koenig Solutions is a Licensed Training Partner (LTP) currently working with Scrum Alliance trainers approved to instruct the following course:

- Certified ScrumMaster (CSM)

Completion of these courses results in certification from Scrum Alliance. Koenig Solutions is authorized to deliver student evaluations during the course, as outlined in the LTP relationship with Scrum Alliance.
