

BETI - Built Environment Technology and Innovation Pro Training

Course Contents

This course empowers you to leverage technology and innovative approaches to drive productivity and profitability of built environment projects.

Leverage this powerful driving force in your next project by learning following module:

- How the concept of innovation can be applied throughout the project lifecycle
- How to identify and overcome barriers when implementing innovative solutions in the built environment
- How to cooperate with project stakeholders to identify and select the best possible technology solutions