

AVSEC Awareness Training for AEP Applicants – Table of Contents

1. Introduction to Aviation Security (AVSEC)

Overview of aviation security in India

Role of BCAS and other regulatory authorities

Importance of security in civil aviation

2. Airport Security Zones & Restricted Areas

Layout of airport: Landside vs Airside

Security Hold Area (SHA), SRA, sterile zones

Classification of restricted zones

3. Airport Entry Permit (AEP) System

Types and color codes of AEPs

Validity, renewal process, and usage rules

Consequences of misuse

4. Access Control Procedures

Entry gates, biometric systems, frisking

Personal ID verification and pass inspection

Escorting norms and visitor protocols

5. Security Screening Procedures

Walk-through metal detectors (WTMD)

Hand-held metal detectors (HHMD)

Baggage X-ray scanners and their use

6. Prohibited & Restricted Items

Categories of prohibited items (weapons, liquids, etc.)

Handling of restricted items

BCAS-approved list overview

7. Threats to Civil Aviation

Unlawful interference: sabotage, hijacking, bombing

Insider threats and risk awareness

Case studies and real-world incidents

8. Response to Security Incidents

Whom to inform in case of emergency

Emergency contacts and protocols

Role of employees during incidents

9. Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Actions

Workplace behavior expectations inside the airport

Dress code, identification display, prohibited actions

Penalties for violations: warning, pass cancellation, prosecution

10. Safety, Security & Hygiene Protocols

General safety inside airport premises

Fire safety, emergency exits

Health & hygiene regulations (COVID protocols, etc.)

11. Summary and Q&A