

EXIN Privacy & Data Protection Professional (PDPP)

OEM: EXIN • Duration: 1 Day (2 hrs) • Code: PDPP

COURSE MODULES & TOPICS

1 Data Protection Policies (10%)

- Purpose of Data Protection and Privacy Policies (5%): organizational policies for legislative compliance; policy content requirements
- Data Protection by Design and by Default (5%): seven principles for privacy by design; practical application strategies

2 Privacy Information Management System – PIMS (32.5%)

- PIMS Basics (12.5%): ISO/IEC 27701 standard terminology; statement of applicability; documentation purposes; management review functions
- PIMS Benefits (10%): audit objectives; determining local regulatory requirements; compliance demonstration; supplier evaluation
- PIMS Relationships (10%): PIMS vs information security management systems; ISO/IEC 27002 applicability; control application methodology

3 Roles: Controller, Processor, and DPO (17.5%)

- Controller and Processor Roles (10%): controller responsibilities; processor responsibilities; relationship dynamics
- Data Protection Officer Role (7.5%): GDPR mandatory appointment criteria; DPO functions and duties; supervisory authority relationship

4 Data Protection Impact Assessment – DPIA (27.5%)

- DPIA Criteria (15%): assessment criteria application; objectives and expected outcomes
- DPIA Steps and Implementation (12.5%): step-by-step process; real-world scenario application

5 Data Breaches, Notification, and Incident Response (12.5%)

- GDPR Breach Requirements (2.5%): breach determination standards
- Notification Requirements (10%): supervisory authority notification; data subject notification obligations; documentation requirements