

Advanced System Operator Workshop for IBM i

OEM: IBM • Duration: 3 Days (24 hrs) • Code: AS27G

COURSE MODULES & TOPICS

Objectives

- Explain the concept of how LPAR works
- Explain the functions served by the HMC
- Explain the functions of IBM i Access Client Solutions
- Explain how user versus resource security are implemented
- Explain the difference between group profiles and authorization lists
- Describe how adopted authority works
- Describe how work is managed on the system and the concepts of the performance tuning process on the system
- Explain how Management Central can be used to manage a single system or a network of Power i servers
- Perform the steps to create a basic CL program using both the traditional (PDM and SEU) application development tools
- Perform the steps to create a menu using SDA
- Provide some tips on how you can improve your operations