

IBM Business Automation Workflow 23.0.2: Introduction to Process Applications

OEM: IBM • Duration: 1 Day (8 hrs) • Code: WB875G

COURSE MODULES & TOPICS

Objectives

- Identify the key capabilities of Business Automation Workflow
- Describe the high-level architecture for Business Automation Workflow
- List the core notation elements that are used in the IBM Process Designer
- Recognize the purpose and function of Blueworks Live
- Describe Business Process Management (BPM) principles and the process spectrum
- Create a process application
- Model a structured process based on process requirements

Course Content

- Course introduction
- Unit 1: Introduction to IBM Business Automation Workflow
- Exercise 1: Creating your first process application
- Unit 2: Introduction to Business Process Management
- Unit 3: Playback 0: Modeling the As-Is and To-Be business processes
- Exercise 2: Playback 0: Creating the To-Be process
- Course summary